GUIDELINES

- 1) You agree to comply with all the guidelines outlined above for reserving the area(s) at Creekside Preserve.
- 2) For the safety of the community, you agree that after one warning regarding the behavior of the invitees of the event, and if behavior is deemed unruly or threatening to the enjoyment of the other HOA members and has not been corrected, the second warning will result in the event being broken up.
- 3) At any disturbance regarding property destruction including vandalism etc., the event will be broken up.
- 4) I understand that I am responsible for any damage or disturbance caused by my event or guests at the event.
- 5) Creekside Preserve HOA is not liable for any injury or damage resulting from incidents arising from the event.

Creekside Preserve HOA Common Area Use Agreement

As the sponsor, I accept full responsibility for any and all damages or theft and agree to pay Creekside Preserve HOA for any replacement costs. I will not hold Creekside Preserve HOA responsible and further assume all liability for any physical harm suffered or any property damages incurred from activities related to the event. All outdoor common areas will remain open to Creekside Preserve HOA Members during your scheduled event. Creekside Preserve HOA cannot be held responsible for Acts of God. Note: Failure to comply with HOA rules and regulations may result in fines of up to $250 per event.
